Jalapeño Margarita

This margarita is a new favorite because of its subtle taste of jalapeño with the slightest bit of heat on the finish.

It was popular at our last party...and we knew we had a hit when the rest of the cocktails went untouched! The simple syrup takes only a few minutes to make, but does require time to cool. So plan ahead!

The Jalapeño Margarita

- 2 oz. Premium plata tequila such as Milagro
- 2 1/2 oz. Fresh lime juice
- 2-3 slices of fresh jalapeño seeds removed
- 1 1/2 oz Jalapeño Simple Syrup see below
- 1/4 oz. Cointreau or triple sec
- 1. Chill a margarita glass with ice and water
- 2. Add the lime juice and jalapeño slices to a shaker and muddle
- 3. Add the remaining ingredients with ice and shake to chill about 15-20 sec.
- 4. Double strain into chilled glass
- 5. You can rim the glass with salt and/or garnish with a lime if you wish
