

Belle Meade Bourbon

We had a magnificent time at the Cured – Belle Meade Bourbon Paired Dinner this past week in San Antonio. A meal at Cured Charcuterie is always a treat and this 5 course pairing was no exception. Visiting with Andy Nelson of Green Briar Distillery and hearing about the resurrection of his family's legacy was fascinating. (You can find the complete story on their web site here). The cocktails, featuring their Belle Meade Bourbon, Sherry Cask Finished Bourbon and Tennessee White Whiskey, were excellent and complimented the, as usual, superb food.

Well, this set me to creating some libations with Green Briar Distillery's most excellent Bourbon. At Cured, they served a sour and a bourbon/amaro cocktail. The "Chas Sour" contained their Sherry Cask Finished Bourbon, cardamom syrup and lemon juice. The bourbon/amaro, the "Old No. 5", used Belle Meade Bourbon, Averna and bitters. I guessed at and came up with my version of the "Old No. 5. However, I decided to also make a bourbon sour and a Manhattan both using Belle Meade Bourbon.

First, lets talk about Belle Meade Bourbon. I tasted this neat, both at the Paired Dinner and home. Let me start by saying that the Nelson brothers have a winner out of the gate! Belle Meade bourbon is worth drinking neat, on the rocks or in cocktails. Full disclosure note: I am partial to high rye bourbons which includes Belle Meade. That being said, here are my tasting notes:

- Nose: Maple syrup and caramel with grapefruit
- Taste: Rye spice with caramel, smoke and tobacco with vanilla
- Finish: Smooth. Several reviewers report that it has a short finish but I disagree. It is a smooth, long finish with distinct cherry and spice. If you “chew” it, you up the spice.

Old No. 5

So, on with the drinks. Here is my version of the Old No. 5:

- 1 1/2 oz. Belle Meade Bourbon
 - 3/4 oz. Averna
 - 1 dash Fee Brothers Barrel Aged Bitters
 - Orange peel for garnish
1. Add all ingredients to a mixing glass with ice and stir until chilled
 2. Strain into a chilled coup
 3. Express the orange peel over the drink and float

Belle Meade Manhattan

Belle Meade Manhattan

This bourbon has legs, so I went straight to a 2:1 bourbon:vermouth ratio. You can go with more vermouth, but I like the flavors of the Belle Meade and prefer that the vermouth complements and not over powers. I used Angostura for the bitters and Grand Marnier for the sweetener.

- 1 1/2 oz. Belle Meade Bourbon
 - 3/4 oz. Carpano Antica Vermouth
 - 1 dash Grand Marnier
 - 1 dash Angostura Bitters
 - Orange peel and maraschino cherry for garnish
1. Add everything but the garnish to a mixing glass with ice and stir to chill
 2. Strain into a chilled coup
 3. Express the orange peel and float then drop the cherry into the drink.

Belle Meade Sour

I like my whiskey sours 1:1 bourbon and lemon sour. For the lemon sour, I prefer 2:1 lemon to simple syrup. I also like the mouth feel of egg white.

- 1 1/2 oz. Belle Meade Bourbon
- 1 oz. Fresh lemon juice
- 1/2 oz. Simple syrup
- 1 large egg white (can use 3 Tbl. pasteurized egg whites but it will not be the same)

1. Add all ingredients, in order to a shaker and shake for 30 sec without ice to emulsify the egg white.
2. Add 3 regular sized ice cubes plus on large cube (1 1/2 – 2 inches)* to the shaker and shake to chill 10 – 15 sec.
3. Double strain into a chilled coup and serve

* using a large ice cube creates a silky finish that complements the egg white. You can omit this and use regular ice but you should get a large ice cube tray!

So there are three drinks using Belle Meade Bourbon. I will soon be posting cocktails using Green Briar Distillery's Tennessee White Whiskey.

Cheers!
