

The Last Word

The Last Word

The Last Word is a Prohibition era cocktail originally created at the Detroit Athletic Club. Equal parts Gin, Green Chartreuse, Maraschino Liqueur and lime juice create a well balanced cocktail with bold citrus and herbal flavors.

Ingredients:

- 3/4 oz Gin
- 3/4 oz Green Chartreuse
- 3/4 oz Maraschino Liqueur
- 3/4 oz lime juice

Directions:

1. Chill a cocktail glass with ice and water
2. Add all ingredients to a shaker with ice
3. Shake until well chilled
4. Double strain into chilled glass

Cheers!

White Russian

While this classic cocktail is white, it isn't from Russia. Nor was it invented by a Russian or even for a Russian! The black Russian was created by a bartender in Brussels for an American Diplomat in 1949. The White Russian first appeared in the 1960's. Whatever the origins, it is delicious and decadent.

Technically, this should be shaken. However, the streaks of white and brown are mesmerizing. So add the cream last, serve it with a stir stick and allow your guest to gawk in awe before they stir in the cream.

Ingredients:

- 2 oz Vodka
- 1 oz Kahlua
- 1 oz Cream

Directions:

1. To a chilled Old Fashioned glass, add a large cube of ice.
2. Add the Vodka and Kahlua and stir gently to chill and combine
3. Add the cream on top.
4. Serve immediately with a stir stick.

Cheers!

Directions:

The Conference

From Death & Company via Epicuriuos. “This is a tiki drink disguised as an old-fashioned, so it’s no surprise that it comes from Brian Miller, Death & Co’s resident scalawag and expert on all things Polynesian. One night a waitress asked Brian to make something stirred and boozy, so he took one of tiki’s core principles—blending several base spirits to create a new flavor profile—and applied it to whiskey and brandy. It was another breakthrough moment for the bar, and these days it’s not unusual to find two or more base spirits in our drinks.”

Ingredients:

- 1/2 ounce Rye
- 1/2 ounce Bourbon
- 1/2 ounce Calvados
- 1/2 ounce Cognac
- 1 teaspoon demerara syrup
- 2 dashes Angostura bitters
- 1 dash Doc Elliott’s Mixology Coffee Pecan Bitters
- 1 lemon twist and 1 orange twist for garnish

Directions:

1. Chill a large Old Fashioned glass with ice and water
2. Combine all ingredients, except the garnish, in a mixing glass with ice. Stir to chill

3. Strain into chilled glass over a large ice cube
4. Garnish with citrus twists

Alaska Cocktail

Another classic, pre-prohibition cocktail. I have no idea what it has to do with Alaska! As Paul Clarke points out: “The Savoy Cocktail Book, where this drink appeared in 1930, is less than helpful in illuminating the drink’s origins: ‘So far as can be ascertained this delectable potion is NOT the staple diet of the Esquimaux. It was probably first thought of in South Carolina hence its name,’ according to the book.” I suggest trying this with Hendrick’s gin. The Yellow Chartreuse really plays with Hendrick’s botanicals. However, for a more original version use a London Dry, such as Ford’s. Where ever its origin and whichever gin, the Alaska Cocktail is worth trying.

- 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. Hendrick’s or Ford’s Gin
- $\frac{3}{4}$ oz. Yellow Chartreuse
- Dash Orange Bitters

1. Chill a cocktail glass with ice and water
2. Combine all ingredients in a mixing glass and stir with ice
3. Strain into chilled glass
4. Garnish with lemon twist

Cheers!
