

Time to Lick the Donkey

It's a family Christmas tradition...don't ask.

This is another drink that I found and renamed for a party. You can tell it's from the Tiki era since it has 2 kinds of rum. This is a sour and shows how you can use multiple juices. The recipe could also be adapted for a punch.

- 1 oz. Appleton rum
- $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. Bacardi 151 rum
- $\frac{3}{4}$ oz. crème de banana
- 1 oz. orange juice
- 1 oz. pineapple juice
- $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. Lime juice

1. Shake well with ice
2. Pour unstrained into Highball glass
